

 HARVARD Kennedy School
JOHN F. KENNEDY SCHOOL OF GOVERNMENT

KEEPING OUR COOL:

Promoting Green Technologies to Combat Climate Change

May 4, 2011 4:00pm

NYE CONFERENCE CENTER

TAUBMAN BUILDING, 5TH FLOOR

ELIOT STREET

(ADJACENT TO THE CHARLES HOTEL)

HARVARD KENNEDY SCHOOL

CAMBRIDGE, MA 02138

Join a conversation with the members of Refrigerants, Naturally! about how corporations, NGOs and government can work together to make substantial reductions in greenhouse gas emissions in a time of political austerity and contention. In the absence of binding international climate agreements, who will lead the charge to save the planet?

Refrigerants, Naturally! Project Partners

The Coca-Cola Company | Greenpeace | McDonald's | PepsiCo
Unilever | United Nations Environment Programme

Event co-sponsors:

Environment and Natural Resources Program | Corporate Social Responsibility Initiative | Harvard Project on Climate Agreements
Harvard University Center for the Environment | Belfer Center for Science and International Affairs

For more information, please call 617-495-1351